

SOSME EVALUATION LICENSE AGREEMENT (ELA)

Framework: SOSME Legal Framework

Document ID: LEG-005 Document Reference: SOSME-ELA-2026-001

Version: 1.0

Effective Date: [01.01.2025]

Welcome

Thank you for your interest in SOSME.

This Evaluation License Agreement ("Agreement") governs your access to and use of the SOSME evaluation environment before purchasing a subscription.

Please read this Agreement carefully before requesting or using the evaluation environment.

Article 1 – Purpose

The purpose of this Agreement is to grant you a temporary, limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, and revocable license to evaluate SOSME solely for internal assessment purposes.

This Agreement does not constitute a subscription agreement, software sale, or production license.

Article 2 – Scope

This Agreement applies to:

- ◆ SOSME Evaluation Environment
- ◆ Demo Platform
- ◆ Mobile Applications
- ◆ Artificial Intelligence capabilities, including Yara AI, AI during evaluation
- ◆ Documentation provided for evaluation
- ◆ Any related evaluation materials supplied by SOSME

Article 3 – Evaluation License

Subject to this Agreement, SOSME grants you a limited right to:

- ◆ access the evaluation environment;
- ◆ evaluate platform functionality;

- ♦ test available modules;
- ♦ experience Yara AI capabilities; and
- ♦ assess SOSME for potential subscription.

The evaluation license:

- ♦ is temporary;
- ♦ may not be transferred;
- ♦ may not be sublicensed; and
- ♦ may be withdrawn by SOSME at any time.

The evaluation license grants a right to use the evaluation environment only and does not grant any ownership or intellectual property rights.

Article 4 – Evaluation Period

Unless otherwise agreed in writing:

- ♦ Active Evaluation: up to seven (7) days
- ♦ Read-Only Access: up to thirty (30) days
- ♦ Archive Period: up to ninety (90) days

SOSME may modify these periods where appropriate.

Article 5 – Permitted Use

You may use the evaluation environment solely for:

- ♦ internal evaluation;
- ♦ product demonstrations;
- ♦ proof-of-concept activities;
- ♦ user familiarization; and
- ♦ subscription assessment.

The evaluation environment must not be used for production business operations.

Article 6 – Restrictions

You must not:

- ♦ use the evaluation environment for commercial production;

- ♦ reverse engineer or attempt to extract source code;
- ♦ copy or distribute SOSME software;
- ♦ bypass security mechanisms;
- ♦ misuse Yara AI;
- ♦ perform unauthorized security testing;
- ♦ benchmark or publish performance testing results without SOSME's prior written consent;
- ♦ use the evaluation environment to develop or improve competing products or services; or
- ♦ allow unauthorized third parties to access the environment.

Article 7 – Customer Data

You remain responsible for information you upload during the evaluation.

Unless expressly agreed otherwise, you should avoid uploading confidential production information.

Evaluation data may be permanently deleted following the archive period unless otherwise agreed in writing.

SOSME may remove evaluation environments and associated data in accordance with the Demo & Evaluation Policy.

Article 8 – Intellectual Property

All intellectual property rights relating to SOSME, including software, documentation, Artificial Intelligence models, methodologies, trademarks, and related materials, remain the exclusive property of SOSME, its Strategic IP Partner (Reflexion Group), and/or their respective licensors.

No ownership rights are transferred under this Agreement.

Article 9 – Confidentiality

Information relating to the SOSME platform, Yara AI, documentation, demonstrations, pricing, technical information, and evaluation materials may be confidential.

Where a separate Non-Disclosure Agreement has been executed, that agreement shall govern confidential information.

Article 10 – No Warranty

The evaluation environment is provided solely for evaluation purposes and is supplied on an "as available" basis.

Features, functionality, and performance may differ from production services.

SOSME does not warrant that the evaluation environment will operate without interruption or error.

Article 11 – Feedback

The Customer may voluntarily provide feedback, suggestions, ideas, enhancement requests, or other recommendations relating to the evaluation of SOSME. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, SOSME may use such feedback to improve its products and services without restriction or obligation, provided that no confidential information of the Customer is disclosed or used contrary to applicable agreements.

Article 12 – Termination

SOSME may suspend or terminate evaluation access at any time where:

- ♦ the evaluation period expires;
- ♦ this Agreement is breached;
- ♦ security concerns arise; or
- ♦ continued access is no longer appropriate.

Upon termination, the evaluation license automatically expires and all rights granted under this Agreement immediately cease.

Article 13 – Relationship with Other Agreements

If you subscribe to SOSME Services, this Agreement will be replaced or supplemented by the applicable contractual documents, including:

- ♦ Enterprise Subscription Order Form (ESOF)
- ♦ Master Subscription Agreement (MSA)
- ♦ Enterprise Deployment Agreement (EDA)
- ♦ Customer Success Support Agreement (CSSA)
- ♦ Data Processing Agreement (where applicable)

- ◆ Professional Services Agreement (where applicable)
